April 14, 2012	ACT	We strongly encourage Class II students interested in taking the ACT to take it at this time, so that they will have a set of scores for the second round of college meetings. Milton is a test center for this date only.
June 9, 2012	ACT	Class II students may take the ACT at this time. Milton is NOT a test center; graduation is June 8.
September 8, 2012	ACT	Historically, this is the time when many Milton students have tended to take the ACT. Scores from this test date will reach colleges in time for early action/early decision applications. Milton is NOT a test center.
October 27, 2012	ACT	This is another good time to take the ACT. Scores from this Test date may reach colleges in time for early action/early decision applications. Milton is NOT a test center.
December 8, 2012	ACT	Scores from this test date will be considered for regular decision applications only. Milton is NOT a test center.

- We recommend that students opt to take the writing section with the ACT, as most colleges will require it.
- For test dates other than April, the closest towns offering the ACT are Braintree, Brockton, Brookline, Newton, Quincy, Randolph, Walpole, West Roxbury, and Westwood. Please note that the ACT is not given at every test center on every test date.

AP EXAMS

May 7-18, 2012	Students should talk with their individual teachers regarding which tests they should take, if any. Some courses prepare students well for APs; others do not. Sign up is handled through the Registrar's Office in late February/early March.
